The screenshot shows the website for the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) at the University of Mississippi. The browser window title is "Research, Scholarship, Innovation, and Creativity - Mozilla Firefox". The address bar shows "www.research.olemiss.edu/#". The website header features the University of Mississippi logo and the text "THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI Research, Scholarship, Innovation, and Creativity". Below the header is a navigation menu with links for "Welcome", "Sponsored Programs Administration", "Proposal Development", "Award Management", "Integrity & Compliance", "Technology Transfer", and "Required Certifications". The main content area includes a large image of a yellow autonomous underwater vehicle (AUV) in the Gulf of Mexico, with the headline "UM-Led Research Team Awarded $20 Million to Study Long-Term Effects of Gulf Oil Spill". To the right of this image are three smaller news items: "Phytochemist Receives Distinguished Research and Creative Achievement Award", "UM-Led Research Team Awarded $20 Million to Study Long-Term Effects of Gulf Oil Spill", and "UM Physics Researchers Contribute to Higgs Boson Discovery". Below the main headline, there are sections for "Limited Submissions" (listing NSF Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Talent Expansion Program (STEP), University of Mississippi and University of Mississippi Medical Center solicitation for pre-applications from infectious disease researchers, NIH & NSF International Cooperative Biodiversity Groups (U19), and NSF EPSCoR Track 2 RFP), "Fiscal Year (FY) 2014 Department of Defense Multidisciplinary Research Program of the University Research Initiative (MURI)", "NSF- Documenting Endangered Languages (DEL)", and "More Funding Opportunities". A "Latest News" section is also visible at the bottom right.
